Performance Competition – General Information

To recognise members' efforts in promoting the breed by entering competitions, the Council will run the performance competition for ridden and in hand Irish horses.

Publicity will be given in our newsletter and on Facebook.

CONDITIONS OF ENTRY

- Please note the revamped conditions, points and prizes for this year.
- The horse (filly, colt, mare. Stallion or gelding) must be registered with IDHS (NZ).
- The owner/competitor must be a financial member of the IDHS (NZ).
- The competition shall run from the 1 August to the 31 July the following year (placings can only be used in one performance competition entry).
- "Ridden Competition" horses can now gain points from inhand competitions aswell as under saddle. Please state on entry form if they are INHAND results.
- Competition scores can be backdated for late entries.
- Horses sold during the year may have their scores transferred to the new owner on application to the Secretary and provided the new owner is, or becomes a member of the IDHS (NZ).
- Entries must be made on the official score sheet and the $25 entry fee paid by 31 Aug.
- Score sheets must be returned to the performance co-ordinator no later than the 31 August each year. Results will be announced by 30 September.
- The Council reserves the right to delete any competition which it considers ineligible for this competition and to check results with any shows/events it considers necessary.
- Trophies must be engraved by the Winners & returned by 31st July to 82 Waiareka Valley Rd, RD17C Oamaru 9491.
